The Short Vowels

- Any language have short and l vowels.
- The short vowels in Arabic language is not letters.
- The short vowels in Arabic language are signs like:

- These signs are called:
  fathah فتحة - kasrah كسرة - dammah ضمة
- the short vowels only give the letter one count or one beat or one second time.
- All short vowels have the same time.

CamScanner

The Fathah

الْفَتْحَةُ

- Fathah is small sliding line above the letter (on the top).
- With Fathah you should open your mouth up (vertically).
- Fathah gives the letter one vowel count (sound – beat – second).
- Remember that Fathah is short vowel not long vowel (don't stretch it more than one beat).
- Don't open your mouth widely when saying letters with Fathah.
- Don't circle your lips with heavy letters with Fathah.

CamScanner

Sukoon

السُّكُونْ

ـْ

- Sukoon means the letter is non-vowelled with fatha or kasra or dummah.
- In sukoon you shouldn't move the lips up or down or circle your lips.
- It is small circle above te letter (in Arabic language).
- It's the shape of small ـْ letter above the letter in quraan.
- In sukoon we shouldn't move the lips.
- Note that with sukoon some letters have no time, other letters have moderate time and the rest have long time.

CamScanner

The story of sukoon

- The letter with sukoon is like small baby (your little brother).
- He can't walk alone and always needs someone to help him and hold his hand.
- Who can hold your small brother's hand ? .... Can he walk alone in the street ?
- You can hold his hand or your mom.
- Also, saken letter needs the letter before it to hold it so we can read both of them together.
- So, when we see sukoon sign on a letter can we read it alone ??
- Of course, no so, what should we do ?....
- Read it with the letter before it which could have fatha or kasra or dammah.

CamScanner

Let's practice

- Skoon with hamza.

أَءْ	أَجْ	أَدْ	أَقْ
أَطْ	أَبْ	أَكْ	أَتْ	أَلْ

Hamzatul Qata'

ء

- We have 2 types of hamza in Quran.
- Hamzatul Qata' (cutting hamza):

❖ It has several shapes like:

ء أ ؤ ئ ئ ئـ

❖ It's written and pronounced, and we never skip in the middle of reading.

❖ It could come at the beginning or at the middle or at the end of the word.

❖ For example:

بَأْسَ | تُؤْتِي | سَمَاءً | شَيْئٍ

CamScanner

Hamzatul wasl ٱ ٱ ٱ

- Hamzatul wasl (connecting hamza):

- ❖ It has one shape only (alef letter holding a head of a small صـ letter).
- ❖ It's written but not pronounced in the middle of reading.
- ❖ We connect the letter before it to the letter after it.
- ❖ It only come at the beginning of the word or between two words or after one of the prepositional letters.
- ❖ If it was preceeded by madd we skip madd and we skip hamzatul wasl
- ❖ For example:

فَٱرْجِعِي | وَٱخْفِضْ | قُلْنَا ٱدْخُلُوا

CamScanner

Starting with hamzatul wasl

ٱ

At the beginning of the word

1. Start it with dammah:

- If the third letter of the verb has an original dammah.

ٱعْبُدُوا | ٱذْكُرْ | ٱشْدُدْ | ٱدْخُلُوا

2. Start it with kasrah:

- If the third letter of the verb has kasrah or fathah or dosen't have an original dammah.

ٱقْتَحَمَ | ٱهْبِطْ | ٱعْمَلُوا | ٱسْمَعْ

- There are 5 verbs in Quran doesn't have and original dammah on the third letter and we start them with ksarah.

ٱئْتُوا | ٱمْضُوا | ٱقْضُوا | ٱبْنُوا | ٱمْشُوا

CamScanner

Shaddah

الشَّدَّة

- Shaddah sign looks like the head of a small seen س.
- Shaddah sign always come above the letter.
- It indicates a double letter so if any letter has shaddah sign it must be repeated, the first letter has sukoon sign and the second letter has the vowel on the shaddah sign as :

رَبْ+بَ=رَبَّ

- Shaddah sign comes only at the middle or the end of the word.

CamScanner

Let's practice

- Shaddah with fatha

أَقَّ	أَدَّ	أَجَّ	أَعَّ
