

Salah...

Your connection to your Creator.

Created by: Banan Mahmaljy Obeid

Think of a beloved family member that lives in another state or country.

What do you do when you miss them?

You call them, so you can talk to them, and hear their voice.

You tell them the good things that happened, You complain to them about the bad things that happened

You ask them for advice or help.

The Quran is Allah talking to YOU...

In the same way, if you love the One who created you, you should want to do the same thing!

You can't call Allah on the phone,

You can't hear His voice.

but you CAN hear his words and you CAN talk back to Him.

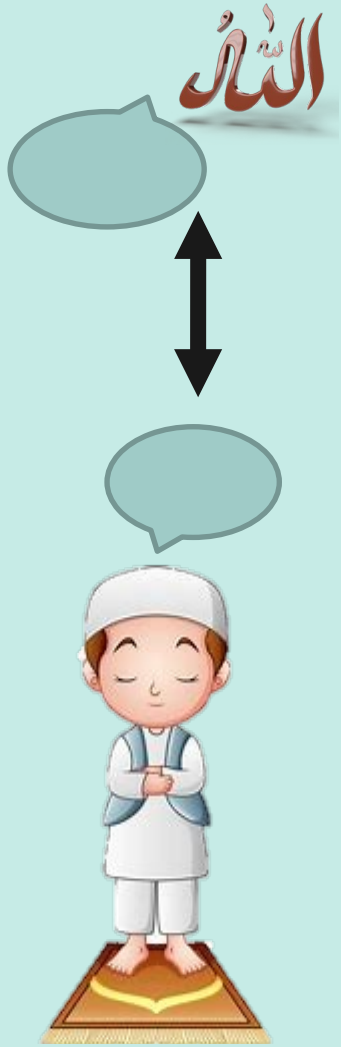

alah is You talking to Him.

Example:

Al Fatiha is a conversation we have with Allah at least 17 times a day!!

He responds after every Ayah.

When you talk to your friend on the phone, you don't just talk to yourself.

The other person listens, then responds – otherwise, you aren't having a conversation.

In the same way, when we pray, we are conversing with Allah. We must try recognize that Allah (S) responds to us after every Ayah we recite.

So....What are we saying to Allah and what does He say back?

Servant: بِسْمِ اللَّـهِ الرَّحْمَـٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ
In the name of Allah, the Merciful, the Compassionate.

Servant: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّـهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ
Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds.

Allah s.w.t.: My servant has praised Me.

Servant: الرَّحْمَـٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ
The Merciful, the Compassionate.

Allah s.w.t.: My servant has glorified Me.

Servant: مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ
Master of the Day of Judgement.

Allah s.w.t.: My servant has submitted to My power.

Servant: إِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ وَإِيَّاكَ نَسْتَعِينُ
It is You we worship and it is You we ask for help.

Allah s.w.t.: This is between Me and My servant, and My servant shall have what he has asked for.

Servant: اهْدِنَا الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ
Guide us to the straight path.

Servant: صِرَاطَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ غَيْرِ الْمَغْضُوبِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا الضَّالِّينَ
The path of those upon whom You have bestowed favours, not of those against whom You are angry, nor of those who are astray.

Allah s.w.t.: This is for My servant, and My servant shall have what he has asked for.

My slave has praised Me

My slave has glorified me.

My slave has recognized my power

This is for my servant. My servant shall have what he asks for.

Think about that grandmother or aunt you love so much.

If she was calling you and you saw her picture and name on the screen, it would be really rude to press DECLINE, or to let the phone ring and ring and not pick up and let it go to voice mail.

She would feel sad/ignored.

Same thing with Allah…

He DOES CALL US, but HOW?

The Athan is like the phone ringing.

The Athan is Allah calling to you:

If we get up and pray, we are answering Allah's call.

But if we stay on the couch and miss the salah, we are ignoring and declining His call..

Unfortunately, we sometimes continue to talk or watch TV while Athan is being called, and don't even listen to the call itself!

How insulting!

اَلصَّلاةُ عِمَادُ الدِّيْنِ

Salah is the pillar of the religion.

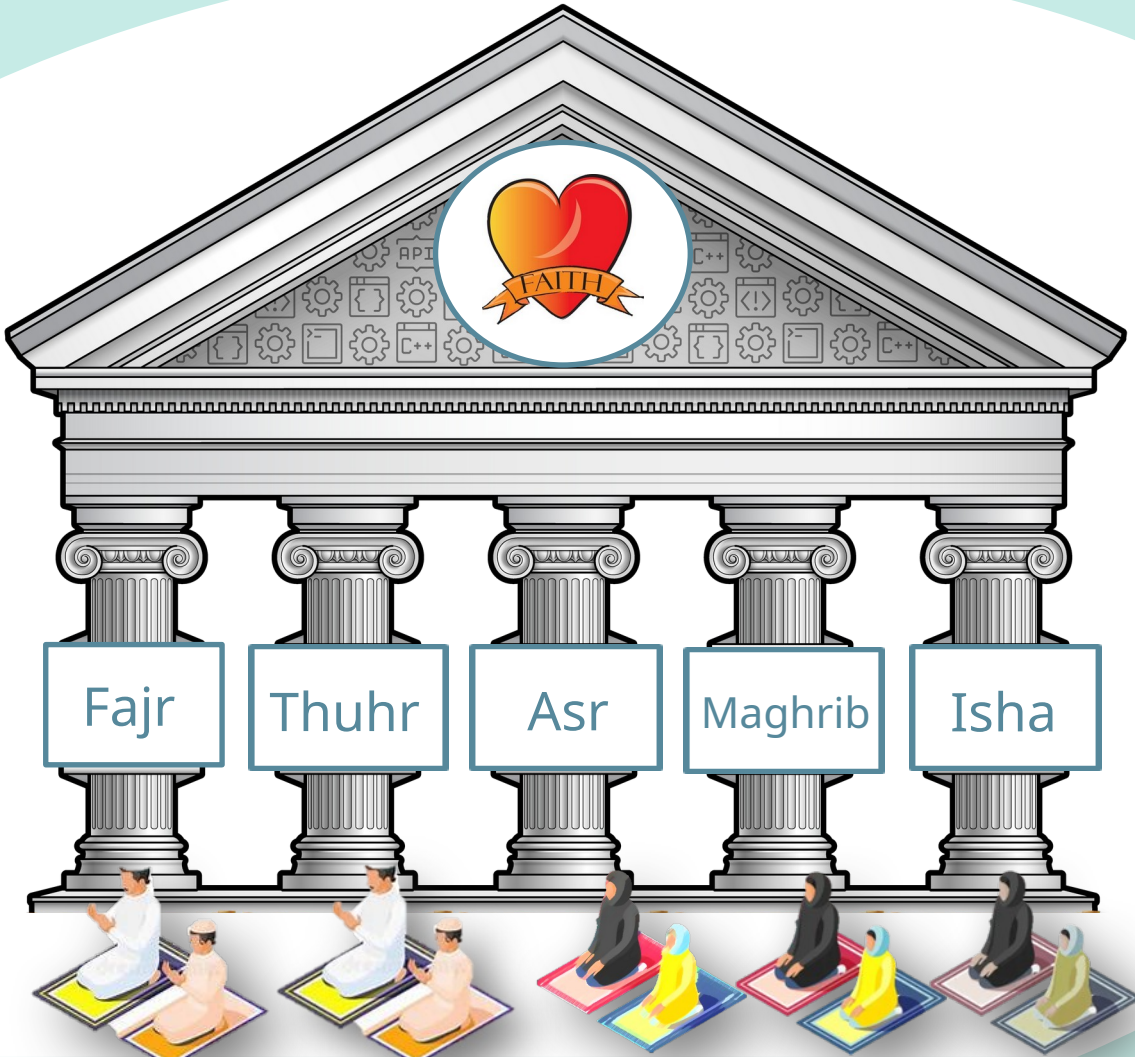

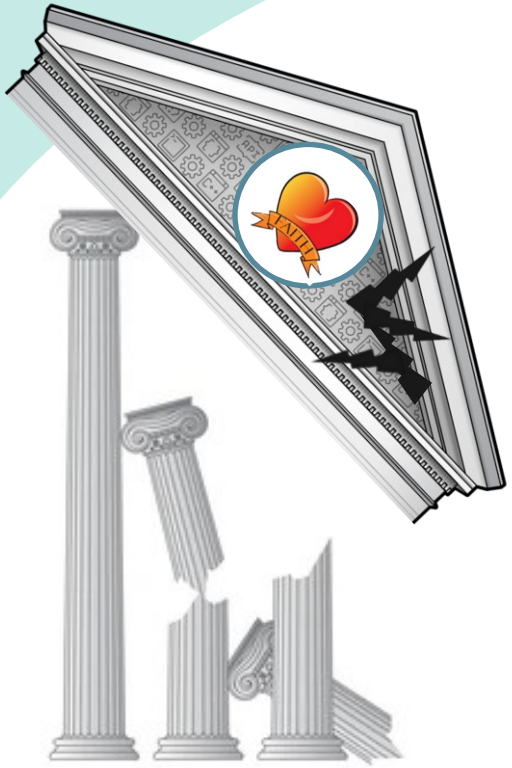

Your 5 daily prayers are the pillars that hold up your faith and keep it strong.

For every 1 of the 5 prayers you miss, you will lose a pillar - making the entire building weaker.

A building that has a damaged pillar will lose its support and collapse at the slightest movement.

Without our Salah, the pillars of our faith will begin to shake from the affects of the bad things around us.
In no time, our faith will collapse, and we will lose our Islam.

Why Should I Pray?

Salah means connection.

Salah is the way you connect with your Creator.

Imagine when you are praying that there is a rope from the top of your head and goes all the way up to the sky and connects you to Allah.

Salah is meant to stop you from sinning. It's a five times a day reminder...

How can you stand that talk to Allah and ask for Sirat Al Mustaqeem and then walk away and sin?

It should be hard to do that.

What does it mean if you pray but still sin???

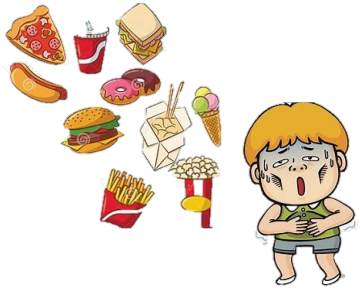

Salah is the food for your soul.

Just like your body needs to eat nourishing foods or you will feel sick, your soul needs nourishment too or it will feel sick...

Salah is called Miraj of a believer...

(the ascension of the believer) because it raises us up beyond the things of this World...

Where Did Salah Come From???

Salah was given to the Prophet (S) as a gift to the Ummah during the event of the ISRAA & MIRAAJ

Allah took the Prophet on this miraculous journey when he was at the lowest point of his life, after:

- 3 Year Boycott (7th year)
- Death of Khadija (RA) and Abu Talib.
- Incident of Taif

Allah uplifted the Prophet in many ways in this journey, but the last of them was the gift of Salah- a gift for us- his

ISRA WAL MI'RAJ
Prophet SAW rode Buraq during this journey
50 prayers were given as a GIFT then reduced to 5 prayers
MI'RAJ
Journey to the 7 heavens and meeting with ALLAH swt
SIDRATUL MUNTAHA
BAITUL MAMOOR
7th heaven - Prophet Ibrahim AS
6th heaven - Prophet Musa AS
5th heaven - Prophet Haroon AS
4th heaven - Prophet Idris AS
3rd heaven - Prophet Yusuf AS
2nd heaven - Prophet Isa & Yahya AS 1st heaven - Prophet Adam AS ISRA
MAKKAH TO JERUSALEM
MASJID AL HARAM
MAKKAH
AL MASJID
AL AQSA
Journey time:
2 hours by plane
Weeks by camel

Salah= A special gift that came from a special place.

So important that it was given to us from below the thrown of Allah (S)!

Why would you reject a gift?

What can I do to help me remember to pray?

Pray Jama'a

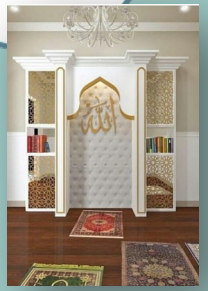

Plan the day around salah

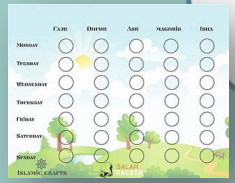

Athan Clock

Salah Corner

Salah Chart

Make Duaa

